Twenty-six Candidates Vie For Twelve Positions

Pivnick, Pucci Battle At Polls Today For Presidency; Large Vote Expected

What . . . student body elections. Who . . . twenty six candidates. When . . . today, from 9 to 4. Where . . . student body lounge. The first post war election of student body officers will be held today in the student lounge. In contrast to last year's election, in which most of the current student body officers ran unopposed, every office but that of the current Activities Commissioner will be contested.

PRESIDENCY BATTLE

Highlighting the election will be the battle between Joe Pucci and Izzie Pivnick, candidates for the student body presidency. Izzie, recently an Infantry captain, is a veteran of State student body affairs, and prior to his tenure in the service held several student body and class offices. Joe Pucci, also a service veteran, has had three semesters of organizational experience in one of the largest student groups on the campus, the Music Fed.

PRECEDENT BROKEN

Two candidates have filed for the position of student body vice-president, June Dolan and Lou Rubin. Miss Dolan is currently secretary of the student body and is a past prexy of the Associated Women Students. Rubin is, at the present time, president of the junior class. Rubin, incidentally, is the first man ever to run for the vice-presidency of this college.

The office of secretary is being sought by three women, Clara Caburi, an officer of the Music Fed; Doris Hoffman, president of the IRC and the Club Advisory Council and secretary of the Associated Veteran Students and Dorothy Damon, of the Women's Athletic Association.

Audrey Scontriano and Don Burch will vie for the treasurer's office.

Walt Suggs will be the only contestant for Activities Commissioner.

Thirteen candidates have filed for positions on the Board of Directors, six for upper division rep-

I. R. C., Free World Club Present Noted Speaker

Mrs. Betty McCandless, one of the 20 United States representatives to the World Youth Congress held last November, will address a meeting jointly sponsored by the International Relations Club and the Free World Club today in the Activities Room at 12 o'clock.

Last year at this time delegates to this Congress from various nations were enthusiastically received by students at State. Mrs. McCandless will explain what these delegates and others from 64 nations of the world have done in setting up a world youth movement.

Mrs. McCandless will briefly explain the purposes of the World Youth Congress and the relationship between it and the United Nations.

Choral Festival Slated For May 7; State, Junior College Choirs Featured

San Francisco State College will be host to the eleven junior colleges participating in the Northern California Junior College Choral Festival to be held next Tuesday, May 7.

The festival will be held in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church from 2 to 4, and will consist of individual group singing by each junior college under its own director. These festivals have been presented annually for more than 10 years; however, they were discontinued during the war. This will be the first time that State has had the honor of being host to the festival.

RECEPTION PLANNED

Following the musicale in the church, there will be a dance and reception in the gym. In the evening a dinner, prepared by Miss Gertrude Lunning, Co-op manager, will be served to the visiting faculty and students.

State's A Capella choir, directed by Mr. Roy Freeburg, associate professor of music, will present a concert miniature following the dinner. Mr. Harold Hollingsworth, assistant professor of music, will be the featured soloist. Numbers rendered by the choir will be in two groups. The first, religious, will include "O Sing Unto the Lord," Hassler; "O Light Divine," Archangelsky, and "Lost in the Night," Christiansen. The second group, English, includes "Hark All Ye Lovely Saints Above," Weekes; "Turtle Dove," Von Williams, and "Australian Up Country Song," Grainger.

HOLLINGSWORTH SOLOS

Mr. Hollingsworth will sing "M'Appari" from "Martha," Flo-tow; "My Lovely Celia," Old English, and "Service," Cadman. He will be accompanied by Jean Stanbridge.

Inklings Will Go On Sale Wednesday

Inklings, State's student written, edited and published magazine is in its final stages of production, and will go on sale Wednesday, May 8, according to Pat Healy, publicity manager.

This semester's edition has been enlarged and many new authors have been added to the list of contributors. Because last term's issue was sold out in advance of the date set for sale, the staff has printed 500 copies which will sell for 15 cents a copy.

The magazine, although State's most recent publication, has rapidly become traditional with students. Among the student authors whose stories will appear are Gene Benefiel and Irv Thomas, both well-known for their literary work on college publications.

"We expect student response to Inklings to reach a new high this semester," said Doris Thulin, co-editor.

Enthusiasm Mounts For Gala Banquet At St. Francis Hotel Next Monday Eve

Student and alumni enthusiasm for the forthcoming State College banquet at the St. Francis Hotel next Monday evening has been mounting hourly throughout the past week, accompanied by a flood of reservations that promises a sell-out house.

Various student organizations and groups of alumni have arranged special tables for ten in the lavish Colonial Room of the famous hostelry, according to Caroline Nahman, student business manager.

ALPHA PHI GAMMA TABLE

Among those who have already arranged tables are Alpha Phi Gamma, honorary journalism fraternity; Alpha Omega, service sorority; Bib 'n Tucker, social sorority; Phi Eta Chi, service fraternity, and Gamma Sigma Pi, humanities club. Tables for other groups are in the process of formation, Miss Nahman reported. Tickets may still be obtained at either the student body office or the comptroller's office.

The banquet will be the first social get-together of students, alumni and faculty since Dr. J. Paul Leonard took over the presidency of the college last fall, following the resignation of President Alexander C. Roberts. Called to celebrate the recent acquisition of $3,436,000 for constructing ten new buildings on the Lake Merced campus, the affair will give many their first opportunity to meet President and Mrs. Leonard.

OPERA STAR TO SING

Highlighting the banquet will be the singing of Florence Quartararo, State '41, whose operatic de-

Pres. Leonard To Address IRC Diners

Dr. J. Paul Leonard, president of the college, will speak on "The United Nations or What?" tonight at the banquet sponsored by the International Relations Club. Dr. Leonard is expected to elaborate on the educational approach to world peace and tell what part college students, as well as educators, can do in cooperating with the UN.

Besides the speech by Dr. Leonard, the banquet will also feature a talk by Dr. Lloyd D. Luckmann, director of the International Center on Post street.

Mrs. Agnes Bond, past president of Nu Sigma Omega, honorary social studies fraternity, will present, in book form, the entire collection of material used in last year's round table discussions.

Play Day May 15th Features Big Rally

Introduction of the newly elected officers of the student body will take place during a gigantic "play day" scheduled for Wednesday, May 15, according to Jean Smith, activities commissioner.

Included in the play day will be a two hour rally, featuring outside and college entertainment, games, dinner in the Co-op and a dance in the gym.

GAMES PLANNED

All classes will be excused at 2 p. m. on the fifteenth in order that the entire student body may attend the rally at 2:15. Competition games between the faculty and students will begin at 4 and will be followed by an all State baseball game.

DANCING IN GYM

A dinner, including hot dogs and potato salad, will be served in the Co-op at 6:30 for the nominal price of 50c. Dancing to the music of popular records from 8 to 11 will round out the play day.

Plans for the event are being handled by a committee consisting of Miss Smith, Meta Johnsen, student body president, the executive council, and the Recreation department.

The Other Side

By Scott Hope

In reply to the recent editorial in the Gater I wish to clarify the evident misunderstanding of the constitution. In this article it was stated that the board of directors has been practicing "skulduggery" in filling vacancies on the board by appointments.

I quote directly from the constitution:

"Article III, Section 6—Whenever vacancies in the Board of Directors shall occur, whether by resignation, death, incapacity, or otherwise, or by an increase in the number of the persons constituting the Board of Directors, such vacancies may be filled by the affirmative vote of the majority of the remaining directors present at the next regular or special meeting of directors following the occurrence of such vacancy or vacancies."

"The voting members may elect director or directors at any time to fill any vacancy or vacancies not filled by the directors."

"Article IV, Section 1-b (Powers and Duties of Directors)—To appoint and remove or authorize the appointment or removal, subject to the confirmation of the Board, at any time, ALL OFFICERS, committees, agents and employees of the corporation."

"Article VIII, Section 11 (Filling vacancies)—Any vacancy occurring during the term of office of any elective officer shall be filled by special election called by the president."

The above section of the constitution is true provided the Board of Directors shall not have filled such vacancy at the next regular or special meeting after the occurrence of such vacancy.

In a legal document a special provision is given greater weight than a general provision, in that it restricts the power stated in the general provision.

We of the Board have asked for constructive criticisms and appreciate the fine response from so many student body members. HOWEVER, we do not appreciate criticism based on inaccurate or incomplete information.

Signed: Meta Johnsen,

President, A. S. S. F. S. C. First, Meta, I am not authorized to speak on behalf of the Gater. I would like to add my voice to the many criticizing the constitution and wordings of our school constitution.

Neither you, nor the writer of the editorial, can be blamed for confusion on vacancies. The error of that editorial was correct his statements, as far as he

If You Gotta Go, You Gotta Go, Bud!

By Art Blum

If you gotta go you gotta go, but the big problem confronting State's masculine population today is not "if you gotta go," but where you gonna go?

Time was, according to legend, that all a guy had to do was display a pained expression, squirm awkwardly, and either a Prof or some good neighbor would knowingly murmur: "First door to the right, bud—you can't miss it!"

But times have changed and so has State, but the old urge is still here—and I think it's here to stay. Thus, with this smirking thought ever in mind let's look into the situation here at Gatorland, a situation pregnant with possibilities.

WHERE TO GO

There are only two Mens' Rooms at State and they're at the opposite ends of the pole! One is located in the far reaches of spacious Anderson Hall, adjacent to the Dissecting Ward. The location has proven awkward more than once when some unsuspecting male who has heard the call makes a mad dash to the general vicinity of the Comfort Station, opens the door hurriedly, and finds himself face to face with three (count 'em) leering cadavers! Such a shock has scared the—"urge"—out of more than one such victim.

The second "Head" or "Latrine" (what does a poor civilian call it?) is buried very cozily at the southern end of Annex B. If some healthy young male hears the call again and he's located somewhere in College Hall or in Annex A, he immediately takes his life in his hands by racing wildly down the steps, (waking everyone in the library), or by dashing through the Co-op, upsetting trays, people, and his own nervous system, until he reaches the Promised Land.

The point is that these two rooms are disadvantageously placed for, shall we say, quick action? To reach the rooms and then one's class within the ten minute interval between classes is not only a hardship, but darn near impossible. Can you imagine a bunch of Vets parading in front of College Hall with placards crying: "Unfair to suffering men!" or "We're not broke, but we want relief!"

We would like to suggest a measure of relief for the long-suffering male; namely convert one of the two Women's Rest Rooms in College Hall to a Men's Room. We'll admit that the women enjoy squatters rights, but a long-standing inconvenience should be corrected immediately for the good of all mankind.

Letter to The Editor

When we were attending the rally last Friday, we were immensely ashamed of our inability to join in the singing of the school hymn.

We remember that when we were in high school, it gave us feelings of pride and belonging to be able to sing our school songs, especially the hymn, and we want to have those same feelings for the school that we have chosen to be our "home" for the next four years.

It is already past mid-term, and we can safely vouch for the fact that at least three-fourths of the low freshmen and other new students do not know the words to the school songs.

It has been brought to our attention that, formerly, there were booklets of the songs and yells issued to the new students, but we have not seen any around.

WHERE ARE THEY?

—B. G., D. S., & D. R.

To E. S.

This is my answer to your editorial concerning the rise in College Theatre prices. You claim that the students were made fools of and were taken in by a well meaning project. Yet, as far as I can see you are only one of a few who feels this way. I have spoken to both faculty and student members who were pleased with our production, and felt the price of seventy-five or eighty-five cents was well justified.

In fact, I believe that all this 'hubbub' about the prices was instigated by just a few, and as much as I hate to say it, some of those few are College Theatre members.

THERE ARE ALWAYS THOSE WHO MUST PULL THE OTHER WAY!

Let us examine the prices of some of the other school theatres.

Mills College, which is allotted far more money than we are, charges a dollar for admission to their productions. Stanford charges ninety cents; Theater Arts Colony, one dollar and twenty cents; Sacred Heart High School, one dollar. One could go on and on.

Last semester we provided the Student Body with four one-act plays—admission FREE. DID YOU KNOW ABOUT THESE, E. S.?

This semester we have given two, and have four more coming up. These are also free to the Student Body!

Materials and equipment have advanced considerably in their prices. Also there are the expenses and royalties of these one-act plays to consider.

In the future let's be different for a change. Let's work and pull together. You know there are always two sides to every question. If you came to us in the beginning and understood the workings of College Theater, perhaps you wouldn't have found your editor necessary.

Edmund Reynolds,
Business Manager.

Which One Will It Be?

Joe Pucci

Izzie Pivnick

(Editor's Note)—

Here is the story "the Gater wouldn't print." It was the opinion of this editor that publishing the following story on the day of the student body elections could be interpreted as an indorsement of the candidate by this paper. At no time does the Gater favor a political candidate or party. It is not partisan. However, since the false accusation has been circulated we are printing the story, along with a similar one on his opponent Izzie Pivnick.

PRESENTING JOE PUCCI

With the coming Junior College Music Festival, the interest of the general student body has been attracted to the music alley as never before. This story is the result of many requests for information about Joe Pucci, guiding genius of the festival program.

The Music Fed appointed Joe general chairman of the program because of his splendid record of getting the "impossible jobs" done, and because of the spirit and drive with which he plunges into any activity which is of benefit to the school. Aided by the various committees which he organized, Joe has arranged the details of the musical program and following reception, and planned the evening dinner and dance. Single handedly he has prepared the publicity campaign and untangled the knotty financial details of the festival.

In the three years he has been at State (interrupted for three years by the U. S. Army) Joe Pucci has managed among other

BLUM'S BULLSESSION Names N' The News

Oddly enough at the recent Alpha Omega Barn Dance there were as many Alumni as under-graduates present. Pete and Vi Mirande, she being former Student Body Vice Prexy, Jack and Jean McGann, she being former school president, and Norma Ramsgard were among the many oldtimers in view.

Two graduates, Nancy Hanno and Arnie Vezzani finally let the school in on their engagement after officially keeping mum (not a close relative) about it for over a month!

BUCHANAN BANTER:

At press time we're still "sweating out" the expected arrival of Neil Harriman's special visitor (or possibly plural) from the Stork Club. This is one time the Stork didn't beat the deadline!... Pete Wei's has left for the Army this week with all signs pointing to a return to his native Austria... Duncan Hodell, popular Gater feature writer, has just returned from a months' trip to the icy waters of Alaska—and No! he didn't meet Dorothy Lamour!... Accolades to two terrific voices at State, soprano Lucille Ruff and Baritone Dick Brewer. Their singing at the recent concert was the hit of the show!...

Votes have been pouring in for one Raphael Bertucelli as the man who should operate the Vets' Kissing Booth May 15th. By making a practice of kissing dozens of unwary young and innocent co-eds, this lad had evidently created the impression that he would like the job of "Chief Kisser!"—in fact, would greet it with open arms. So here's our vote too!

HAIGHT HIGHLIGHTS:

The petition for the removal of the juke box is ready for a vote today. We think the petition, however, was unnecessary! All that was needed, according to many—and we concur—was to place the juke box by the Co-op windows, where those who want to enjoy the music can, and at the same time, those in the library and at the counter won't be disturbed by the noise. How about it Co-op staff?

Another petition is circulating in an attempt to forestall any move to install a loud speaker system in the Co-op. Thus, the food isn't the only thing hot that's stirring in State's eatery these days!

BLUMMING AROUND STATE

Athletic eye-tems: Barefoot Boy with cheeks of "rosy red" was Dick Wind when he lost the seat of his pants tumbling on the lawn!... and "Wild" Bill Kennerley's diving catch of a foul ball in the bleachers of Seals Stadium has countless numbers of Seal Scouts trailing him here (as well as the management who want the ball back!)... Dr. Wendell Otey of the Music Dept. startled Music Alley fans a few days back when, at the risk of athlete's foot, he booted a football clear over the fence to the Upper Field!...

Despite a cold and dreary night—hm—a bunch of hardy Staters staged a Weenie Roast Friday eve at the Ocean Beach. Chief Hot Dogs were Ellie Freed, Johnny Holden, Lou Urditsky, Jack Kalik, Morrie Sockalov, Fern Kline, Bud Wendt, Esther Fertig, Joyce Anderson, Ken Green, and Hershey Zimmerman.

The Outlaw may be banned, but cheer up m'bucks. There's fun still left in this old world. Tonight there's Doris Hoffman's IRC Banquet. Monday there's the terrific School Banquet at the St. Francis.

Six Junior Colleges Participate In State Music Festival, Tuesday, May 7

J. C.'s Introduce Six Top-Notch Choral Groups

The Student Body of San Francisco State College takes pride in welcoming the music students of six Junior Colleges of California to the State campus for the Northern California Junior College Choral Festival on Tuesday May 7.

For our and their mutual benefit the Gater presents a few notes about our guests and their musical organizations.

MARIN JR. COLLEGE... A full choral group of forty voices, directed by Mr. Clinton Lewis. Last year they had a girls glee club which has developed into a full chorus, sparked by ten veterans. The group plans a spring tour which will encompass Contra Costa and Lake counties.

MODESTO JR. COLLEGE... Twenty-five women headed by Mrs. Edna Barr Love, who this week will judge the Northern California Music Week at Chico. The choir has been active on Modesto local music affairs and radio programs. Mrs. Love was a critic at San Jose earlier this year with Mr. Freeburg of State's department.

San Francisco Jr. College... Sixty voices led by Miss Flossita Badger, who has been with the San Francisco Opera Co. and studied in Italy. The chorus sang with the Municipal Chorus last year, and some of the members are now with the Russian Opera. They also sang two years ago at the launching of the record Kaiser 4 1-2 day ship.

SALINAS JR. COLLEGE... A triple trio brought here by Miss Gertrude Lowe. Miss Lowe has just returned from the Waves after six years. The Salinas student body this year tripled itself. The triple trio is a bevy of nine women's voices.

San Mateo Jr. College... A chorus of forty-seven voices conducted by Mr. David Lawson. A new organization dedicating itself to singing for fun. They sing anything from Waring to Willowsky. The group returns to Stockton tonight to take a featured spot in the Stockton local Music week.

Music Fed Explained

The largest and most active organization on the State Campus is the Music Federation. The "Music Fed," as it is commonly called, is the Legislative body for the largest department on the Campus. It is a democratic organization which cooperates with the music faculty in planning the musical activities for each semester. The executive body of the "Music Fed" is a representative group called "The Fed Board." This board is composed of the "Fed" officers plus a representative from each musical activity comprising the Music Federation.

At the beginning of each semester, the board and faculty meet together and organize a series of parties, concerts, recitals, deputation trips, and many other activities. This does away with conflicting dates and tends to create a well balanced schedule of activities.

Music Workshop Will Open Soon

By Mr. Walter Lawe

In the summer of 1939, the Music Federation of San Francisco State College instituted the Music Workshop. Ever alert for opportunities to apply practically their teaching technique, this progressive student organization conceived the idea of creating a laboratory of music education. The Music Workshop is just what its name implies. It is an institution for the practical application of musical and educational technique.

COMPOSED OF HIGH SCHOOL

In operation, the Music Workshop is simply a school composed of students of Junior and High School levels taught by a faculty of student teachers, and supervised by a staff of college instructors. Under these practical conditions, State College students receive valuable teaching experience under the watchful eyes of the regular faculty.

From the year of its inception to 1943, the Workshop's guiding spirit was Mr. Karl Ernst, now Superintendent of Music in the Portland Public Schools. The year following Mr. Ernst's departure, Mr. Ray White assumed the roll of Chief Administrator, and last year, the position was taken over by Mr. Reg Krieger, Head of the Music Department at Lowell High School. The staff of supervisors consists of a number of the Music Faculty plus the regular staff of professionals. The student teachers are chosen by the college faculty from applications received and are accredited the same as practice teachers.

ACTIVITIES ARE VARIED

The musical activities of the Workshop consist mainly of class instruction and ensemble playing. The classes are conducted by the student teachers supervised by faculty members, and the instrumental ensembles, consisting of an advanced and beginners band and an orchestra, are under the supervision of faculty supervisors with student teachers assisting. These activities culminate in two gala concerts at the end of the six weeks session. At these two concerts, the large ensembles and each individual instrumental class performs for the general public.

Each Choir Entertains, "Then Wined and Dined"

The coming music festival on Tuesday, May 7, in which the various A cappella choirs of the different colleges will participate, has had a glorious past. Under the sponsorship of the Northern California Junior College Choral Association, of which all the participants are members, these festivals will again resound in the succeeding years, with the pick of voices. Miss Flossita Badger, of S. F. J. C., who is president of the N. C. C. A., will preside as chairman over the revival of this great event.

SIX J.C.'S TAKE PART

Before the war, they were annual occasions looked forward to by all the colleges. At that time there were twelve colleges that took part. Because this is the first festival in five years, not all the groups were able to make the journey; as a result only six colleges are prepared to participate. They are Marin J. C., Salinas J. C., Modesto J. C., Stockton J. C., San Mateo J. C. and S. F. J. C.

The last three festivals held before the war were on the campuses of San Jose State, Stanford, and College of the Pacific. This marks the first time that San Francisco State will have the opportunity to play host to the N.C.C.A. State is honored to have been selected to play host; as a result the music department is doing everything in its power to make the occasion a memorable one.

THREE SONGS APIECE

Included in this "feast of music" is a fine program in which each choir will sing three songs under the direction of their respective conductors. At the end of the concert there will be a prepared schedule followed. This will include a dinner for the visitors with entertainment provided by the Choral Strings; and as a grand climax, a dance will be given. Presiding over State's part in the activities will be Mr. Roy E. Freeburg as faculty chairman and Joe Pucci who is coordinating chairman for the whole affair.

Dr. William Knuth New Music Building To Be Unique in Design

The music building as planned for the new campus of San Francisco State College is unique in functional design. This building is conceived as a Communicative Arts unit which house and coordinate music, drama and radio.

The auditorium unit consists of a concert hall seating 875 and a recital hall seating 275 located at right angles to each other and using a common stage 75 ft. square. The stage is so constructed that a large sound proof wall can be lowered to close off either auditorium. The concert hall has a hydraulic orchestra lift for 125 instrumentalists to be lowered as an opera orchestra pit or to be raised as a concert platform. The concert hall will have a three manual pipe organ. This instrument will be used for recitals and for training of organists as a part of the major in sacred music.

For drama use the recital hall becomes a little theater with orchestra pit and the concert hall becomes a modern theater with orchestra pit and large stage suitable for all types of drama and opera productions. The radio unit has control rooms so situated as to

NEW MUSIC ALLEY

A large music unit extends from the concert hall. This unit includes 45 practice rooms, small ensemble rooms, organ practice rooms, and a Music Federation Office. According to tradition, these practice rooms will be under student control and assignment. Included in the unit will be practice rooms equipped with chromatic stroboscopes and with wire recorders. This will give drama and music students an opportunity to hear and see the results of their practice. The music section includes a large control office for faculty, a music library, rehearsal rooms for band, orchestra and choirs, and regular classrooms for theory, appreciation and applied music. A specially designed piano room for the sounding keyboard equipment for a class of fifteen will be a distinctive feature for keyboard classes. The music buildings surround a large court which will be used by students as old control rooms so situated as to

LOU RUBIN

After a lapse of many years, the College Band and the A Capella Choir once again presented a combined concert at the Marina Jr. High Auditorium. This year, the two groups were respectively directed by Dr. Wendell Otey and Roy E. Freeburg.

This concert was the commencement of a series of recitals by the various musical organizations on the campus. The return to frequent programs is a welcome addition to the college's music agenda.

PROGRAM OPENED BY BAND

The program was opened by the Band with the 'Overture to Oberon' the oft heard Von Weber work. Following this, the band offered a group of Bach songs, of which the famous 'Fugue in D minor' was especially delightful. The choir then sang 'Lost in the Night' by Christiansen, and 'O Light Divine' by Alexander Archangelsky. In the first the lovely soprano solo was sung by Lucille Ruff. The band closed the first half of the program with the first of two Moussorgsky excerpts heard during the evening, the 'Great Gate at Kiev,' taken from the composer's 'Pictures at an Exhibition.'

Band, Choir Concert Hailed Great Success

During the intermission, one could not help but reflect upon the vast difference between the groups of this year, and its immediate predecessors. Without a doubt both organizations are this year the strongest they have been in the past four seasons. Indeed they seem to be rapidly nearing the high caliber set by the bands and choirs of five and six years ago.

MALAGUENA PLAYED

The Symphonic Band again opened the second portion of the program, with a concert arrangement of the 'Malaguena' from Ernest Lecuona's 'Suite Espagnol' for piano. The choir next offered a group of two songs 'Hark All Ye Saints by Thomas Weelkes, and the 'Filling 'Turtle Dove,' of Vaughn Williams. The first was directed by Elleith Larson, and the second featured baritone soloist Charles Brewer.

SPORT DOPE

By Scott Hope

KEEPING TRACK

This might be called a human interest story. Toad Oakes won a race last Saturday. When Toad reported to the Gator cinder squad he was not given a snowball's chance in hell to win a race. He was in bad shape, to put it mildly. By extreme diligence, perseverance and down-right guts he worked himself back into something resembling good condition. The average athlete would have given up after a few turn-outs, but not Toad. He kept right on working.

He wanted to win just one race (although he'll probably win many more, now) very badly. He won that one race last Saturday, his first win of the season, against COP. He wanted to win that race because before he entered the Marine Corps, Toad was a student for two years at ... COP.

CURLY

They do come back. Many authorities have claimed that the service took something out of a man. Well, Bob Feller came back; Joe DiMaggio came back; Herman Wedemeyer came back, and, John Shepherd has come back. John, better known as Curly, was a star on Dean Cox's pre-war track squads. In 1941 he left school to enlist in the Air Corps. He returned this term to obtain a special credential in PE and his general elementary credential.

Despite the fact that he is unable to practice with any regularity, because of after school employment and a heavy scholastic program, he has again become a consistent winner in both hurdle events. At the present time he is undefeated in the 220 lows.

Couch Ray Kaufman aptly describes Curly as "one of the most competitive athletes on the squad." He thrives on competition.

AD TRIVIA

Al Vladimiroff is playing soccer for the Mercury AC. He scored a goal last Sunday ... Exfootballer and unofficial gridiron coach, Bill Stine, is working down at the Vet Administration ... Wally Young, Archie Steinbock and Arne Venanzi are all seeking Masters at Stanford ... Incidentally, Archie's brother, Werner, is currently working out in spring football practice at SMU ... Jim Keating is planning to enroll for the summer and fall sessions at either State or an Oregon school ... Dutch Schultz scored a one punch KO against TI's first sacker Tuesday ... Hal Harden is back on campus after his mishap with a line-drive off the bat of Gene Cox.

I just received a letter, muy interesante, from a disgusted reader of the Gator. Because of the late date of reception, I can not run it this week, but, rest assured that it will run in its entirety next week. Sorry, but the page has already been set up. I had to fight to get this paragraph in.

WINS OWN GAME

Dunn's Hit Beats TI in 9th, 10-9

TREASURE ISLAND, April 30 —Pitcher Red Dunn won his own game by singling home Bob Jones to cap a three-run rally in the last of the ninth, as San Francisco State beat the Treasure Island team 10 to 9.

State's "hitless wonders" came to life to pound three Navy hurlers for 16 hits, including a homer by Armand Quartini with two aboard, and three singles each by Marcoulis, Cox and Jones.

Trailing 7 to 5, TI scored four runs in the top of the ninth to apparently sew up the game, but blew the duke when Saunders reached first on Lowe's error, and Quartini, Jones and Dunn singled.

Athletes Run For Office

Six of Gatorville's well-known athletes are running for office in the election today. The would-be politicians include Scott Hope, Lou Rubin, Walt Suggs, Bogo Keller, Art Blum and Izzy Pivnick.

Red Dunn, who won his last two starts against Cal Aggies and Treasure Island, will ascend the mound for State. Opposing him will be southpaw Art Shallock, who has been sought by the Chicago Cubs, among other major league clubs.

LOSE TO SFJC

After dropping a double-header to SFJC, Marin split a twin bill with San Mateo JC. The Gators broke even in two games with San Mateo, while losing two out of three to the local junior college.

Irv Edstrom will hurl the finale against USF, with Con Dempsey starting for the Dons. Dempsey, who starred in 1941, 32 and 43 and was an all-CIBA choice, returned to collegiate circles this spring after a two-year lay-off while in the Army.

GOOD RECORD

Boasting the best record of any college nine in the bay area, USF has beaten St. Mary's, Santa Clara, Stanford and strong service teams, and lost to Cal 5 to 4 in the last inning.

The Gator line-up will probably be Schultz, 1b; Bill, 2b; Nicolini or Marcoulis, ss; Damonte, 3b; Jones, lf; Quartini, cf; Cox, rf; Martin and Saunders, c; Dunn and Edstrom, p.

Netmen Lose To COP; Meet San Jose Here

A brilliant College of Pacific tennis squad narrowly missed losing their first meet of the season when they turned back a fighting State team 5 to 4 here last Friday. Feature match of the day was Maurice Sockalov's uphill battle to take the number 2 singles from the Tiger's Jack Browne, 3-6, 7-5, 6-4.

This afternoon the State squad takes on San Jose State in the Garden City at 2:30, and meets Humboldt State here tomorrow at 10:30.

Complete Results: Wolfson (S) d. Covey (COP) 6-2, 6-4; Sockalov (S) d. Browne (COP) 3-6, 7-5, 6-4; Tout (COP) d. Whitney (S) 6-2, 6-3; Swift d. Murray (S) 6-2, 6-3; Prince (COP) d. Keating Back In S. F.

Jim Keating, former State baseball, track and basketball star, has recently been discharged from the Marines, and has returned to San Francisco. "Big Jim" is teaming up with current Gator baseball players to perform for the Peaks Tavern nine.

Triangular Meets

Gator Spikesters Beat C O P, Aggies; Meet U. of Nevada, Aggies Tomorrow

Outstanding performances by John Sanford and John Sheppard paced State to a close win over COP and Cal Aggies in a triangular cinder meet last Saturday at Stockton. The Gators scored 69 1-2 points to the Tigers' 64 1-2 and the Mustangs' 29.

The Gator spikesters will be after their third straight victory tomorrow when they travel to Davis to wind up their most successful season in a three-way meet with Nevada and Cal Aggies.

Hits Homer Against Aggies

Gators End Slump; Beat Aggies 16-6

HARRISON FIELD, April 25 —The Gators snapped out of their batting slump this afternoon to pound three Cal Aggie hurlers for 12 hits and a 16 to 6 victory.

Chuck Damonte pounded out a homer with none aboard in the sixth, for the longest blow of the game.

After scoring four runs in the first inning and three in the fourth, State opened up with a seven run rally in the seventh. Salina walked, Dunn singled, Bill and Damonte walked, Cox got life on an error, and Nicolini and Albrecht singled.

Harden Returns

Gator baseball coach Hal Harden received a painful injury when struck in the face by a foul line-drive in last week's game with Cal Aggies. The injury required 14 stitches. After a few days' rest, Hal is much better, and was back to guide the baseballers in their game with the Army yesterday.

GYM SHORTS

By Paul Hungerford

Last week the mighty Golden Gators defeated the College of Pacific Tigers in a triangle meet with Cal Aggies, held in the COP Baxter Stadium. Ray Kring, the COP pole vaulter, tied the National Junior College record. Hal Fox, for the first time this year, was defeated in the 220, and for the second time in the 160 yard dash. Old Faithful John Shepherd still stands as the number one man on the track team; he hasn't been beaten in this year's low hurdle competition.

Hal Harden, coach of the diamond men was noticed last week during the game with Cal Aggies. A batter knocked a foul line drive into the Gator bench where Hal was sitting at the time... he was taken to the Emergency Hospital where fourteen stitches were made in his upper lip.

Recently seen around the campus was Jim Hungerford, State basketball player of '42. Jim was on the team that UC and Stanford refused to play in those years. If this scribe can persuade his big cousin to come back to State, Coach Dan Farmer will have one less guard to worry about on next Fall's hoop squad. But ye gads, think of it... two Hungerfords in the same school!

Congrats go to the entire track team—the best in five years!

It seems John Holden and Art Greenbaum like the idea of attending the COP 'cause of all the beautiful women floating around the campus. Hal Fox, of course, won't admit nothin' on account of there's a certain lil' Gator Gal, huh Hal!

If anyone were to ask Amos Adkins who has the best car on the campus, the answer would be obvious! His brand new 1931 Chevvy can take most any car on the road, and it's a permanent convert too. But poor old Betsy couldn't quite make it to Stockton, so he had to leave her home (Betsy is not his wife or a girl friend!)

Orchids go to "Toad" Oakes for really showing up those old COP pals of his. "Toad" went to COP before the war. While we're here in the hand shaking dept, we extend our deepest 'grats to Hank Larmuseau for taking a place in the hurdles up at Stockton.

Jack Faszholz Stars As Concordia Beats State

BIG REC, April 27—Jack Faszholz allowed but four hits and struck out twelve in hurling Concordia College to a 5 to 1 victory over S. F. State. Faszholz also collected three hits himself.

The Gators scored their only run in the seventh inning when Dutch Schultz singled and came in on Stu Saunders' long triple.

Student Failure To Heed Smoking Rule Evident

Careless observance of the new smoking provisions on the part of the students, was recently brought to the attention of the college administration when reports concerning burning cigarettes left in the telephone booths reached the dean's office.

W. A. A.

By Lola Burton

The double round robin softball tournament of advanced players will begin at noon, next Monday. There are three teams in the tournament—A, B and C, all composed of physical education majors. The beginners' tourney will commence next Thursday, May 9.

TENNIS

Come springtime and thoughts of sport lovers on the campus turn to tennis. Spectators lolling on the grass and performers showing their skill with the racket have come to be associated with one of the most popular tournaments on the W. A. A. schedule.

Manager Clara Caburi has posted a sign-up sheet in the women's gym for tennis beginners and another one for intermediate and advanced players. Among the many signed up to play as beginners are Norma Beltrome, Rosanne Jansch, Rose Diani and Helen Hansen. Bessie Provost, Marilyn Stenson, Helen Blount and Rita Kroner are among the players in the intermediate and advanced group.

STUDENT CONFERENCE

At a meeting of the P. E. department, reports were made by Dorothy Cook and Izzy Pivnick, State's representatives to the Hollywood conference of the California Association of Physical Education, Health and Recreation. Highlights of the conference were given, including problems which had been discussed by various coaches. Need for better dance instruction in the P. E. field, problems of veteran adjustment, trends in professional athletics and the need for body mechanics in the elementary field, were among the many topics discussed.

POSITION UNCONTESTED

Archie Fowlkes is the lone candidate for the under-32-unit position on the Board of Directors.

Six candidates were named for the three upper division positions on the Board of Directors: Harold Juster, a returned serviceman; Rose Lewis and Ellerth Larson, officers of the Music Fed; Pat Healy, Managing Editor of the Gater; Art Blum, Gater Feature Editor, ex-serviceman, and ex-class officer and, Bogo Keller, another service vet and pre-war athletic star.

The election will be held by secret vote, Australian ballot system, and regulation voting machines will be used.

Included on the ballot will be a special referendum that will read as follows: "That the Juke Box Should Be Removed from the Cafeteria." Students will be asked to vote "Yes" or "No" on this proposition.

A special test will be held for those students who failed the senior comprehensive examination at 3:30 May 16, room 207 College Hall.

Organizers of Festival!

More on Tuesday's Music Festival

Mr. Hollingsworth is head of the Barbara Warren, corresponding voice department at State, and before coming here was staff tenor soloist for National Broadcasting Company in Radio City New York, for five years. He is a well-known figure in bay area music circles, and has sung the tenor role in both the "Messiah" and the "Elijah."

He is also affiliated with the San Francisco and New York Light Opera Companies.

RESEARCH PROJECT

Mr. Freeburg, choir director, is doing special research work in the folklore and folk songs of early California, which will be used in writing the California music text, in which a special section will be devoted to Mission Trails and the Central Valley. Mr. Freeburg is co-chairman of the National Folk Song Committee for the Music Educators National Conference, and is head of the music education department here. He will teach at the summer session at the University of Oregon this year.

General chairman for the activities planned by State for the festival is Joe Pucci. Pucci is assisted by El Larson, reception chairman; Joan Durand, serving; Jean Stanbridge, programs; Dean Mary Ward, faculty adviser; Rita O'Neill, faculty reception, and Miss Flossita Badger, head of the music department at San Francisco Junior College, is general chairman of the festival.

Junior colleges participating include Marin, San Mateo, Modesto, San Francisco, Salinas, Yuba, Santa Rosa, Sacramento, Vallejo, Stockton and Placer.

The festival is open to the student body and the music department cordially invites them to attend.

The usual general discussion which accompanies all IRC functions will follow the speeches. Other guests will include Mrs. Leonard, Dean Mary A. Ward and Mrs. Olive Cowell, club sponsor.

Anne Chick, vice-president of IRC, is in charge of the affair, with Millard Morganstern, Sophie Starzinski, Margo Davidson and Peal Glaser assisting.

World Students Need Funds

Getting under way today, the drive for contributions to the World Student Service Fund will be the dominating activity of the campus next week. The WSSF is an international organization set up to give financial aid to students of war-torn countries whose education has been interrupted. The contributions to this fund come principally from students and educators from countries which were not overrun by the forces of war.

To make the students conscious of the drive an assembly will be held next Monday at 2:10 p. m. in Frederick Burk auditorium. The feature of the assembly will be a speech by Dr. Laurence Spears, a professor at Mills College, who recently returned from the University of Biarritz where he instructed G. I.s in the army of occupation.

Dr. Spears will report on his first hand knowledge of conditions in Europe and Asia, and will tell of the plight of students who have been interned in concentration camps, who have been prisoners of war, victims of fascist persecutions and registers in the underground movements.

During the assembly members of the International Relations Club and the Free World Club will pass out cups for small contributions from those present. Later in the week pledge cards will be passed out to all students and faculty members, and it will be urged that each student contribute at least one dollar. The drive will culminate next Friday, May 10.

Juniors Schedule "Maytime" Dance

It's on the house, folks!

The junior class invites the entire student body to attend a dance next Friday, May 10, which will be given for the expressed purpose of "benefiting the students." Admission will be free, as the class treasury has a surplus of funds which they wish to donate to college activities.

"Maytime" has been chosen as the theme for the informal sport dance, with decorations carrying out the theme of springtime and flowers. Arrangements to have Paul Laws' orchestra from the Cirque Room of the Fairmont Hotel are now being made. The dance will be held in the gym from 8:30 to 12 p. m.

went; you, also, are correct as far as you go. However, take away either paragraph of the constitution relative to vacancies and both of you could prove a point. It is not only in the filling of vacancies that our constitution is ambiguous. There are many places in that work in which duplications of authority, perverted distributions of responsibility, and other fallacies can be found. I know that re-writing a constitution is a momentous and tedious task, but I am certain that either re-writing it, amending it or writing by-laws to cover discrepancies in the work would be well worth everyone's time and efforts. Our constitution is a superb literary and legal document, but it is impractical as hell.
